Job title	Art Handling Technician (Casual)
Department	Collection Management – Art Handling
Contract	Casual
Salary	£17.19 per hour
Hours	Ad-hoc
Location	Based across our London sites
Reporting to	Art Handling Manager

Background

Tate's vision is to serve as artistically adventurous and culturally inclusive art museums for the UK and the world. We deliver this through activities in our four galleries across the UK (Tate Liverpool, Tate St Ives, Tate Britain and Tate Modern), our digital platforms and collaborations with our national and international partners. At the heart of Tate is our collection of art, which includes the national collection of British art from the 16th century to the present day, and international modern and contemporary art from 1900 to the present day, spanning all continents. We seek to expand access to the collection and deepen understanding of art in all its diversity.

Tate is a leading global institution, and we influence critical thinking about art practice. Tate is committed to maintaining free entry for audiences to our collections. We see access to art for everyone as a universal human right and we see our galleries as sites of creative learning. We want to champion the importance of making art and encourage people to explore the many ways in which art is created and develop their own creative potential.

We want to welcome audiences that better reflect the towns and cities in our nation and attract a diverse international public. Our reach is already powerful. We intend to increase its impact across society, with art that resonates around the world.

Everyone who works at Tate has a role to play in achieving these goals. We offer exciting work built around our love for art, and have a strong commitment to equality, diversity and inclusion, with the aim to have our workforce and audience as diverse as the communities we serve. And everything we do is only possible thanks to our fantastic colleagues, who really know their stuff, support each other and want to do the best for our audiences.

We hope you will consider joining our team.

About the role

You will participate in the care of art works and support Tate's programme of exhibitions, displays, loans and acquisitions: including installation, handling and packing of artworks. You will be involved in art handling operations across Tate London sites: Tate Modern, Tate Britain, Tate Stores, and other venues as necessary.

About your team

Collection Care

Collection Care's mission is to manage, preserve and enable access to Tate's collections in both physical and digital format. The division carries out Tate's legal responsibilities for the care of its collections, for the benefit of the public, now and in the future. Its operations embrace the management and care of Tate's art, archive and library collections and the facilitation of Tate's programmes of acquisitions, exhibitions, displays, loans and international touring. Collection Care comprises three departments: Collection Management, Conservation and Library, Archive & Collections Access. It manages storage facilities and provides access to art works held in storage, by appointment, and to the Library, Archive and Prints & Drawings collections through its Reading Rooms' services at Tate Britain.

Collection Management

The Collection Management department brings excellence and innovation to the care of Tate's collections. The department is responsible for the logistical, legal, practical and technical aspects of looking after, moving, recording and installing the works of art in Tate's care and for facilitating the delivery of Tate's programme. Collection management holds the inventory of all works of art in the collection and is the guardian of information on the display and movement of works across Tate sites and for loans out to national and international partners and galleries. The department comprises the Art Handling, Registrars and Photography teams and is responsible for managing Tate's storage facilities.

What you will gain

Motivated, and skilled people are key to our continued success, and we want everyone at Tate to have the opportunity to develop and thrive. In this team, you will be encouraged to contribute your ideas, realise your potential, and learn new skills and knowledge.

What you will do (Main Duties and Responsibilities)

- Handling art works in the course of movement, storage, packing and installation/de-installation in the galleries and at Stores.
- Providing a range of technical skills to support operational needs with a focus on Tate's collection care, handling, movement, storage and the installation/de-installation of exhibitions and displays.
- Working internally with colleagues across Tate, and externally with artists and other parties in the delivery of the exhibitions and displays.
- Processing and completing appropriate documentation (e.g. packing and unpacking reports, documenting location art records following Tate procedure).

- Maintain displays and exhibitions to Tate standards and ensure conditions in storage and transit areas are clean and well ordered.
- Complying at all times with security, conservation and health and safety requirements.
- Experience in manual handling, working at height and using gallery equipment for some heavy lifting.

What you will bring to the team

- Good practical experience in art handling.
- Demonstrable technical skills withing a museum/gallery environment.
- Ability to proficiently utilise equipment including portable and stationary power tools.
- Excellent interpersonal skills with the ability to collaborate effectively and confidently at all levels, internally and with external contacts.
- A practical and pragmatic approach to problem-solving.
- Highly organised with the ability to prioritise and co-ordinate tasks in order to meet deadlines while staying calm under pressure.
- Willingness to learn new skills.
- A good understanding of best working practices and Health and Safety requirements
- Willing to work with flexibility between the gallery and the storage locations.
- Awareness of, and commitment to the issues of equality and cultural diversity as they affect the work of a major museum.

The requirements listed here are guidelines, not hard and fast rules. You don't have to satisfy every requirement and we welcome candidates who bring transferable skills. Applying gives you the opportunity to be considered.

Tate for all

Diversity and Inclusion

Our jobs are like our galleries, open to all.

Our aim is to become a truly inclusive organisation with a workforce and audience as diverse as the communities we serve. This is fundamental to Tate's future success and our ability to continue to contribute to culture and society in the UK.

We want our workforce to be more representative of all sections of society at all levels in the organisation. The range of perspectives and experience diversity brings is an asset to our organisation and we want to create an inclusive, welcoming environment for visitors, artists and all those who work at Tate. Tate expects all employees to contribute to this aim as part of their role. More information about diversity and inclusion at Tate can be found on our website.

Our Values

- Open: we're welcoming, generous-spirited and inquisitive, with an open-source attitude that thrives on collaboration.

- Bold: we have the courage of our convictions, we're willing to take imaginative risks: we aren't afraid of failure - so long as we learn from it.
- Rigorous: we'll win people's trust if we're accountable for our actions and excellence underpins everything we do.
- Kind: we value and respect each other, our partners, and our visitors, striving to make every encounter memorable and enriching.

Safer Recruitment

Tate is committed to providing a safe environment for all those who work at Tate and all those who come into contact with Tate as visitors to the galleries, as participants in Tate activities, and online. The safe recruitment of all those who undertake work on behalf of Tate is the first step to ensuring that we are fulfilling this commitment.

All positions at Tate are offered subject to the following conditions:

- Receipt of satisfactory references covering the last 3 years of your employment or education.
- Health clearance
- A satisfactory Disclosure Check.
- Proof that you are legally entitled to work in the UK

You can find out more information about our pre-employment checks and what they mean for you in our 'Guidance Notes for Applicants' document.
